Describe a specific college and why it would be a good fit for you based on your "Compare College Options" activity?

I think IUPUI in Indianapolis would be a good fit for me. First, and foremost, it has my desired major of nursing. It is located in the middle of downtown Indianapolis with close proximity to five major hospitals, which would provide a lot of hands-on practical experience in my field. I toured the college this past summer and was very impressed with the new housing opportunities available.
